Library Board members announced

Four individuals recently joined the Catawba County Library Advisory Board of Trustees, according to Karen Foss, library director.

New members include Brenda Sigmon of Conover, Kevin Moretz of Sherrills Ford, Susan Hunsucker of Terrell and Amanda Edwards of Hickory. They join Mary Bess Lawing of Newton, chairman; Amy Smith of Hickory, vice-chairman and Patricia Gibson of Catawba.

The Board recommends programs, policies and regulations for the governance of the library and makes recommendations concerning library facilities.

Board members serve four-year terms and are appointed by the Board of Commissioners, with the exception of one member who must be part of the Newton City Board of Aldermen.

Founded in 1932 by Challie Brandon Hall of Newton, the Catawba County Library System now operates in seven locations: Newton, Conover, Claremont, Maiden, St. Stephens, Sherrills Ford and Southwest. The system serves some 82,000 registered users.
